A GREAT MAN

Premier Baldwin, who has proved to be a cabinet on Wednesday, carries into retirement something more than the respect that is due to any man who has for many years creditably discharged the duties of that crucially exacting office: a good deal more.

Circumstances confronted him with tests of character which few men have had to face, and he met them with a straight-forwardness and courage which gained him the esteem of men of all parties—and of all countries. It is not as Baldwin's private life as Baldwin the man who will be remembered.

Unassuming, downright, plain-speaking, Baldwin has earned the respect of all who are a characteristic Englishman. Asked to name a living "John Bull," most people would instinctively say—Stanley Baldwin.

START SOMETHING

Two weeks ago the city council was holding special meetings to think up ways to spend the inking fund money Mr. Fortin had so mag-nanimously consented to allow the city to disburse. They thought of a good many; more schemes in fact than there was any chance of carrying out if the whole fund were dissipated in a single summer.

But the spending does not seem to have started yet, nor council to have reached a decision as to what to do with it. It is to be the relief men are still ill, the taxpayers' money going out for no return, the construction men slipping all over the place, the city having to make improvements to be made next year and a housing project that is not even on paper.

The one redeeming feature of the distribution plan was the permission thereunder to use the sinking fund to make capital improvements not otherwise possible at present.
The benefit of that solitary concession is being heavily discounted by delay in getting any improvement plan under way.

With as many workable improvements to choose from it may be difficult to decide which is the most urgent. But when the alternative is to go on paying out relief money and getting nothing for it, almost any plan is preferable.
Of the embarrassing surplus of suggested undertakings, it should be possible to select one and put it in hand forthwith.

SEND HIM A MAP

Hon. A. A. Fallow is facing a curious conundrum. The Dominion, he says, would contribute $10,000 a year to the highway fund, but he wishes to know if the Dominion is really in Alberta, but he can't send the money.

The Dominion offers to contribute 40 per cent of the cost of building roads on national park to another, up to a maximum of $75,000.
To use this sum the province would have to provide 60 per cent, or $122,000.

But the only park-to-park highway the Dominion has approved is one from Calgary to Watson, and it will cost $187,000 to build that one. The balance cannot be used on the Calgary-Edmonton highway or the Edmonton-Jasper highway, since these are not recognized as links in a park-to-park highway.

If it is the whole story, Ottawa must still be infected with the idea that the Rocky Mountain parks are and of right ought to be the exclusive preserve of the Dominion, and that the city of Calgary, if a Calgary-Watson highway is a park-to-park highway because it taps Trans-Canada at Calgary, a highway running from Calgary to Jasper is not a park-to-park highway because it does not.

The peripatetic Minister of public works should and Ottawa is a part of the province of Alberta, but addressed—not to the Parks department—to Hon. Thomas Crerar. The headlines in the departmental press are full of his refusal to see the Bennett commission. There is no reason to suppose Mr. Crerar is likewise choked.

FORTY ACRES PER HEAD

Here is a glimpse at the natural resources prevailing in the north-western section of Alberta, conditions which are being studied and finally produced the results of the dry belt.

Speaking to the Short Grass Stock Growers' Association at the Hotel Macdonald, Mr. B. Thompson, superintendent of the experimental station at Swift Current, is reported as saying that to have good stock conditions cattle, 40 acres of land is the head was necessary in the ranching country.

Where the native grass on forty acres of land is required to support a head of cattle, the hopelessness of growing grain profitably would be self-evident. Yet into similar conditions, varying from a degree, thousands of men flocked in the early years of this century, staked homesteads, broke up the land and started to grow grain—why?

In so doing they, with the encouragement of federal and provincial governments, set the stage for the tragedy that has overtaken them.
A tragedy that has been avoided in the history of dairy ranching from the Panhandle of Texas to Montana had been duly studied.
There is nothing the matter with the soil there. The only thing lacking is water. When it rains, the dry belt produces amazing yields.
But on the average it does not rain enough, and in periods of severe drought, the yield per head is a belated but sufficient explanation of why there have been seven years of distress among farmers in the dry belt, and hints the magnitude of the problem, which confronts the Dominion and the provinces if that vast and fertile area is to be made dependably productive.

SECESSION IS THREAT HINTED AT GRAIN QUIZ

Four Farmer Witnesses Heard at Turgeon Probe in Regina

REGINA, May 28.—The views of four farmer witnesses, including a reference to secession of the West provinces were before the Turgeon royal grain commission today.

The farmers went on the witness stand at the first night session last night after the commission previously had heard James R. Murray, Winnipeg, chairman of the Canadian wheat board, conclude his evidence. George H. McVey, Winnipeg, a member of the wheat board, told of the board's advertising and publicity campaign to develop Canadian wheat sales in the United Kingdom.

MEANS SECESSION

Once an Argentine farmer, H. J. Hansen of Lundon, 25 miles north of here, told the commission that if crops could not be taken to make Canada a more, closed economy, some unit, not secession of the western provinces, would be necessary.

Fiscal policies in the Dominion since the east and were detrimental to the west, he contended. He said he did not advocate secession but believed that if everything else failed, then secession would be necessary if the west were to prosper.

Hansen advocated a government wheat board to control wheat price and government supervision of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

RIGHT TO SELL

James Corcoran, a farmer of the Okeana district, said the right to sell by any method desired should be guaranteed. James Kincaid, of Calder, urged a government guarantee minimum price for wheat. A bushel with a wheat board and supervision of the open market under supervision.

Oscar Glaze of Sedley favored a minimum wheat price.

THE ONLY LOW-PRICED CAR

with CENTRE-CONTROL CROSS STEERING PONTIAC

British United Press

JERUSALEM, May 28.—A "Black Hand" terrorist organization whose activities are causing grave concern in Palestine has set itself the task of murdering prominent civilian Arabs. Arab government officials and police officers who failed to take an active part in last year's revolt, it is revealed here.

Within ten days there have been four murders in the Haifa district alone. The victims were a police captain, a vice-mayor, a native constable and the police captain's bodyguard.

No complete is the terror spread by the gang that even government officials are afraid to help the police. Most of the murderers are known but the police find it impossible to persuade eye-witnesses to come forward. Witnesses say that if the terrorists were able, in broad daylight to murder experienced police officers they would be degraded if they gave evidence in public.

Arab police officers investigating the murders have received threatening letters signed "Black Hand."

It is believed that a number of prominent Arabs and police officials are on the "heating list" and have been marked down for murder by the "Black Hand."

The apparent immunity of the murderers makes the fate of those who have received "Black Hand" letters almost inevitable.

Investigations so far indicate that the centre of the terrorist organization is in Haifa, where the British authorities are co-operating with the Palestine police in an effort to trace the leaders.

GIRL, SWAIN FOUND GUILTY AS MURDERERS

Second Degree Verdict Can Carry Up To 30-Year Sentence

JERSEY CITY, N.J., May 28.—Gladys MacKnight and Donald Wishman were convicted last night of murder in the second degree for the basket slaying of the girl's mother.

The verdict carries a maximum penalty of 30 years in prison. The jury received the case at 5:30 p.m. and the verdict was read three hours and 47 m. later.

PLEA FAILS

The state had demanded the death penalty for the 17-year-old girl and 18-year-old reformed boy. Their attorneys sought acquittal on a plea of self defense.

Judge Thomas F. Menney previously had announced he would wait until next week to pass sentence if the couple were convicted of a lesser charge than first degree murder.

The youthful pair who had accused each other of slaying the fatal basket slaying by claiming Mrs. Helen MacKnight, a native of Baltimore, Md., had threatened them with a knife, fought to control their emotions as the verdict was read.

FACES BEAM

As they were led from the courtroom a few minutes later, their faces were drawn, their jaws clenched.

Half way back in the courtroom the boys' mother wept quietly and turned over to the supporting shoulder of her husband.

Gladys, father, gray-haired Edward W. MacKnight, who had testified in his daughter's defense, was asked what he thought.

"Let's forget about it," he replied.

When It's Fisherman Who Gets Caught—by Camera

FACE-TO-FACE PHOTOS SNAPPED AT SEA PRESENT
NEW CAMERA ANGLES ON ANGLER ROOSEVELT

Feeling guilted up? Well, a 77-pound tarpon—his vacation brought to the happiest possible conclusion by hooking a 77-pound tarpon, largest catch of any in the party, President Roosevelt appeared in fine fettle and high humor when pictured aboard a fishing launch off the Texas coast.

What? Congress is still kicking over the traces?

Certainly that's nothing to joke about!

But the tarpon'll make 'em rub their eyes.

At first exultant over his angling prowess, his mood kaleidoscopically turned to the serious when he was questioned about the critical developments in Congress relating to appropriations and the supreme court.

TORONTO PLANS AIR FACILITIES ON GRAND LINES

OTTAWA, May 28.—Combined land and sea-plane facilities for Toronto capable of handling all forms of air transport and costing approximately $1,500,000, are the goal of a three-year project agreed upon here today in conference between representatives of that city and officials of the department of transport.

Arrangements were made for a jump sum contribution of $400,000 from the federal treasury to aid in the project, it was announced.

If the plan is approved by Toronto authorities work will start at once on a modern, hard-surfaced and instrument-equipped landing field at Milton, on the northwest of the city, to be ready when the trans-Canada air service is put in operation.

RIOTING FLARES IN CATHOLIC UNION STRIKE

SOREL, Que., May 28.—Rioting has flared in this strike-harassed town and three manufacturing plants and six other buildings were damaged before order was restored.

The riot, precipitated by ill-feelings between strikers and non-strikers, raged unchecked for an hour as mobs, hurling stones and other weapons, and tearing down sections of buildings, caused damage estimated at $20,000.

No one was injured, there was no hand-to-hand fighting between the factions. There were no arrests as the town's police force was too small to cope with the rioters, who had dispersed before provincial police sped into town in answer to emergency appeals.

18,000 Mexican Oil Workers Go Out On Strike

MEXICO CITY, May 28.—Hope of averting a general strike of 18,000 oil workers was virtually abandoned today despite an 11th hour appeal to be made to President Lázaro Cárdenas by the 17 affected companies.

Labor Secretary General Vasquez said: "There is no hope of a possible agreement." Largely foreign-owned producing, processing and transporting companies are hit by the walkout.

The workers want a 40-hour week instead of the present 44 hours and a minimum daily wage of six pesos ($1.62) instead of 4.50 pesos ($1.16). The companies represent an aggregate investment of $400,000,000.

Calgary Woman Jumps Into Well: Saves Her Child

CALGARY, May 28.—For a courageous act, performed on the "most terrible day of my life," Mrs. C. A. Benjamin, of Calgary, may be honored by the Royal Humane Society.

In August, 1936, Mrs. Benjamin rescued her four-year-old daughter, Barbara Jean, from a doused well, in which there was 12 feet of water, in which it was only recently her friends learned of the mother's heroic act.

Summertime at Wrag Creek, near here, Mrs. Benjamin heard the screams of her daughter coming from the well. Unhesitatingly, she could not swim, she jumped into the well and grasped the little girl in her arms. Both sank to the bottom. When they came to the surface, Mrs. Benjamin braved her jet against the creaking, and finally locating a rotten, wooden ladder in the darkness.

The crib, had attracted attention of a neighbor, Gordon Woods, 18 years old. Woods gingerly climbed down the ladder and brought the youngster to safety. The mother followed, the ladder giving way several times under her weight.

"I did what any mother would have done," said Mrs. Benjamin. "I shall not forget that little white face in the well. I don't know what FELLY, Sask., May 28.—Eleven-year-old Hazel Scraba, missing since Sunday when she became lost to wild muskox north of here, was found alive late yesterday but suffering severely from hunger and exhaustion. Lady Hazel, 10, her companion was found alive Wednesday.

Spurred by the finding of the younger girl by a party of Indians hundreds of searchers took up the hunt with redoubled vigor and were rewarded when Hazel was found 16 miles north of her home.

LOOK FOR CATTLE

The girls, who became lost Sunday after starting out for straying cattle, parted on Monday when Hazel could not keep up the pace set by her companion.

Lodging was in surprisingly good physical condition when found, apparently having suffered no serious effects, but Hazel was in poor condition.

HAD WAKENED

The first days of stifling wandering had taken toll of her strength when a heavy rainstorm indicated her condition was serious.

Details of the girls' rescue could be learned as police, directing the search, took up the task of notifying widespread search parties the hunt was ended.

MALAYA, May 28.—Fifteen slayings were counted today as the toll of a jealousy fit that sent Kallipa Bell, Filipino tribesman, running amok.

Today word was received that relatives of the victims attacked Bell's kinsmen in the village of Abuh and killed seven. The justice of peace at Kallapa reported Bell killed two more.

EDMONTON MEN ACQUIRE STRING OF PERCHERONS

Western Canada's class "A" fair will be invaded this morning by Messrs. J. Mitchell and Joseph Edmondson, livestock breeders, with a string of Percheron colts and fillies in which the best blood of America and France flows.

These animals, 12 in number, were purchased in Nebraska and Kansas for show purposes in last year's World's Fair, and are now being shown at the Chicago fair. Last year a similar purchase was made and animals bought at that time fetched up high prices at the Edmonton and Calgary fairs.

The horses purchased on their recent trip to the United States are from the famous Lake American

MacKinnon Going To Fort Norman

Robert W. MacKinnon, Colonial Imperial Oil engineer, arrived in Edmonton Friday and will leave for the north Sunday, taking a crew of men with him to take production from the Fort Norman oil well. The Fort Norman well supplies a huge part of fuel oil used on boats and Great Bear Lake mines.

It was Newhouse Group, English naturalist, who first announced to the world that no flowers would be produced without the union of the pollen and ovule.

He and Carrol and Calypso, both French installations, claim, contest winners at major shows both in America and on the European continent and the British Isles. The horses brought to Edmonton are splendidly trained, with excellent feed and systems. They are sold black in color, with some carrying a small white star on the forehead.

Commerce Chamber Grati-fied at Initiative Shown By This Paper

Warm appreciation of the response by citizens of Edmonton and devoted to the appeal initiated by the Edmonton Bulletin in aid of burnt-out soldiers of the British army was voiced Thursday by the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce which co-operated with the Salvation Army and the Canadian Red Cross in making the campaign a brilliant success.

The Chamber of Commerce wishes to express its gratification for the generous response of its members for the appeal in aid of distressed soldiers in the burnt-out areas southwest of Edmonton; the statement declared.

It wishes as well to record its earnest appreciation of the energetic and useful publicity campaign by the Bulletin which was responsible for the fund being initiated, and for the fine cooperation of the Salvation Army, the Red Cross, Canadian Pacific Railway, A. P. Mitchell, Ltd., and the Western Alberta and the local committee of the Red Cross at Edmonton.

The Chamber has not a list of the donors of useful articles of clothing, furniture, and other household necessities, but it desires to say that the Salvation Army is expressing gratitude for these gifts as they fill the urgent needs of the distressed soldiers.

GREAT THRILL SEEKERS PREP FOR SPEEDWAY

Reckless Drivers Test Cars On Death Track at Indianapolis

NEW YORK, May 28.—A word or two on the track and the deadly defying Indianapolis Memorial Day Indy speedway race and the pass-ports who are in it.

Indianapolis speedway is the toughest alley of death with reckless men actually doing their best to crash as they zoom along with the grim reaper.

SEVEN MEN KILLED
In 1936, 27 men, and machines have been killed and seven injured in the race's 64-year history, speedway officials must be vigilant to enforce safety regulations.

But despite all this, reckless drivers test their cars on the 3.6-mile track, which has been built—Gaston Chevrolet, Ray Harp, Jack Frost, Frank Lockhart, Doris Rosta, Jimmie Murphy and the original Hoosier.

FOUR ARE LEFT
Only four of the last seven winners—Wild Bill Cummings, Louis Meyer, Billy Hamilton and Fred Lore—now still drive their track.

Cummings has been driving a front wheel drive car for years, and top of machine, Cummings, however, is a record of 100,000 at the track.

Horseshoe Meet
With a view to arranging for former activities, representatives of all horseshoe players, including the American and Canadian, are asked to attend the Memorial Day meet at 8:00 p.m. Monday, May 31, at 8:00 p.m. Plans will be discussed to make the race a huge affair.

TIPAN ALLEY MUSIC MAKERS LOST IN FILMS

Only Handful of Bohemian District Song Writers Make Grade

The thousands of Tipan Alley song writers who are vanishing under as Hollywood is concerned, it was revealed today.

Only a handful of the songwriters from the bohemian Bohemian district have been able to make the grade in motion pictures.

These are Irving Berlin, Sam Coslow, Al Dubin and Harry Warner, Walter Donaldson and Gus Kahn and Mack Gordon and Harp Brown.

ONCE FLOODED HOLLYWOOD

Such are the numbers of the hundreds of song writers that once flooded Hollywood from Tin Pan Alley.

It is the writers of the New York scene who are being driven from the city by the competition of the Hollywood writers. The writers of the New York scene are being driven from the city by the competition of the Hollywood writers.

LARGEST OBSTACLE

Apparently, the largest obstacle facing the songwriters with their background in the technical side known as Tin Pan Alley is no longer merely their lack of money, but the fact that they are not in the right place at the right time.

PLAYERS PROVE CONTRADICTION

These Hollywood actors are from the same background as the songwriters, yet they are not in the right place at the right time.

Little Orphan Annie

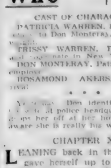

The Happy Ending

—By Gray

Contract Wife

DOROTHY DIX Says:

ACCORDING to some recently coupled divorce statistics the third year of marriage is the time when divorce is most common. Every starry-eyed bride and bridegroom who marries in the first year of marriage is sure to have a divorce counter with their plan to have their marriage last for life.

At first thought it seems a little odd that there should be a divorce time limit on love's young dream, but when you consider it soberly and seriously you can see how this can happen. It takes about three years for the honeymoon to get over and the bride's passion is worn out. When these two impulses occur coincidentally something is bound to break, and that something seems to be the marriage bond.

It is one of the curious things about marriage that we learn nothing from other people's experiences, or our own observations of matrimony, in general. Every starry-eyed bride and bridegroom who marries in the first year of marriage is sure to have a divorce counter with their plan to have their marriage last for life.

After marriage there may have been a let-down for other people, but their husbands and wives might not care for each other's nerves and light, but such a catastrophe could possibly happen to them.

And every bride and bridegroom believe that love is enough; that if they can just be together they will share no other joys. But if they have each other they will not miss the comforts and luxuries and amusements of the world. They will have to make their own way through these halcyon days, and it takes about three years on an average for them to be cured and come back to earth.

Then they find that love is only the merest of the merest of life and that underneath the smiling exterior of everyday existence the clashing of personalities of a man and woman; temper and temperament; work and service; disappointment and disillusion; things that have to be endured, being grumbled children, they spend their days more because the game isn't as much fun as they thought it would be. Then life itself is a struggle.

Then they find that love isn't enough, and that they lack the appetite for bread and cheese and kisses when there are no cakes and no party. They discover that after marriage they will not share the same joys, but that they will have to make their own way through these halcyon days, and it takes about three years on an average for them to be cured and come back to earth.

Another reason why so many marriages go on the rocks in their third year is because the young couple have not gotten over their mothers' spoiling. They are still "Maxima children," as old nurses say, used to being petted, indulged, waited on hand and foot, having everybody else do for them, and when two such self-centered people try to live together there is bound to be conflict. The "crust and inhuman treatment," which is the basis of the divorce play, is really a very simple matter. That their husbands and wives didn't treat them as their mothers did.

And the fact that some couples who have only had three years of marriage are divorcing is not a sign of a bad marriage, but a sign of a good one. It is a sign that they have been together long enough to find out what they really want, and that they are not content with the life they are living. It is a sign that they are not content with the life they are living, and that they are not content with the life they are living.
